- e. Industry Quiz is a mandatory event at the NJLC

Oral Marketing – General Rules

Oral Marketing uses a live setting complete with animal or a photo (no larger than 8X10) and potential buyers. The purpose of this contest is to evaluate the effectiveness of the presentation and the contestant's ability to merchandise whatever product he/she is trying to sell.

- a. Contestants may market a Limousin animal or genetics or a photo (no larger than 8x10) as the subject. Contestants may use a heifer / cow other than their own. The contestant may hold or tie the animal or have another entrant hold the animal during the talk. The animal is not to be fitted. At the 2010 AGM, members decided to not limit the sales to cattle specific.
- b. If using Limousin genetics, immediately preceding the talk, contestants will be required to provide the judges with a registration certificate of the animal being "sold". The judge will use the registration certificate to evaluate the accuracy of pedigree and performance information provided by the contestant and to also ask questions. The certificate will be returned to the contestant at the conclusion of the talk.
- c. Contestants will be judged on their knowledge of the animal or product they are selling (25%), ability to relate important information about the subject (25%), organization and style (25%), poise and delivery (25%).
- d. Materials allowed: Photo of cow/heifer, Photo of Dam, Sire, Service Sire of cow/heifer, registration paper and business cards.
- e. A contestants score will be reduced by 10% if additional materials are presented to the judges other than those listed in the above rules.
- f. Sales Talk will approximately 7 minutes in length

The 2015 Conference and Impact Show will adhere to the NJLA Rules and Regulations, with the following additional rules.

Any exhibitor making entry, by doing so agrees to the rules and regulations of the conference.

1. For each animal a copy of the registration paper, or an application for registration must accompany the entries.
2. All entry fees must accompany the entries and made payable to the Ontario Junior Limousin Association.
3. Entries are to be mailed to:
Rosanne McConnell
R.R. # 5
Kincardine, Ontario N2Z 2X6
4. Animals registered jointly by two junior may only be exhibited by one. If an animal is jointly owned by a junior and a non-junior, it must be shown in the Open Division.
5. Tattoos will be checked by the Show Committee and will have the authority to remove any animal from the show if the tattoo does not correspond with the one stated on the registration papers. Purebred calves born in the calendar year MUST be tattooed and registered.
6. Each animal may only be entered in one conformation class.
7. Calves may be shown with their dams or individually. In the event that both would qualify to advance, only one animal unit can advance.
8. The production of any animal may be ordered by the show committee in charge for viewing or other purposes at any time during the conference, and any participant refusing or neglecting to bring such animals out as directed shall forfeit his entry and any prizes that may be awarded him/her.
9. There is to be no adult participation. Juniors are encouraged to assist other juniors with their tasks. This will be strictly enforced by the show committee. Violations could result in dismissal from competition.
10. Any acts of fraud, deception, or dishonest practice, either in the preparation or ownership of the entry which may have been intended to affect or affected the decision of the judges will be dealt with at the discretion of the show committee.
11. All animals may be subject to veterinary inspection.
12. No person shall be permitted in the show ring during the time of judging except the judge or assistants, persons in charge of the animals, committee members and photographers.
13. Any person who shall attempt to interfere with or influence the judges while in the discharge of their duties, or who shall on the premises of the conference use contemptuous or abusive language to the judge, in the consequences of the awards made by him, shall forfeit his right to all premiums which he might otherwise be entitled to, and shall be excluded from exhibiting next year. Judges are particularly requested to report any breach of this rule.
14. Judges in making awards are to confine themselves to the classes in the prize list.
15. Alcohol and drugs are prohibited in the barns.
16. The CLA as well as the CJLA Provincial and National Committees and/or any of its employees and the Host Fairgrounds and/or any of its employees are not responsible for any accident/thefts during the time prior to, during or after the conference.
17. Though the committee will take every precaution to ensure the safety of the cattle sent to the show, they wish it distinctly understood that the owners themselves must take the risk of exhibiting them and that if any is injured, lost or stolen, the committee will not make payment for the value thereof.
18. Any animal whilst on the premises for the conference, or any other purpose shall be on such premises entirely at the risk of the owner thereof, and the committee will not be liable for damage which may be claimed by reason of any accident or injury to such animals, in any way whatsoever.
19. Exhibitors of animals liable to occasion accidents, injury or damage to persons coming in contact therewith, shall indemnify the committee from and against all claims and demand, costs, charges and expenses which may incur, suffer, or be put to, by any reason of accidents or of any person being injured or suffering damage through or by any reason of such exhibits not being properly guarded, or the public not being properly protected from same.

20. The committee will not be responsible for any injury to person or property of anyone, notwithstanding that the injury may occur on the property during the show whether or not such injury shall have been caused by negligence of the committee, or any other person.
